

Developing leaders for tomorrow

Young IPWEA and IPENZ Engenerate would like to invite all young (i.e. < 35 years of age) public works and engineering professionals to a joint Hawke's Bay networking event

Free beer and pizza!

When – Thursday 16th of April at 5:15pm.

Where – Opus office, 6 Ossian Street, Ahuriri, Napier.

What – This is a great chance to meet and/or catch up with other young professionals in the public works and engineering sectors. Pizza and drinks will be provided and Craig Foss will be coming along to speak about current issues affecting Hawke's Bay and the rest of New Zealand, such as local government amalgamation, the Napier - Gisborne railway, and tourists on New Zealand roads.

Who – All professionals younger than 35 that are involved with either public works (roading, waters, parks and reserves, land development, etc.) or engineering are welcome.

Cost – Free!

Why - Young IPWEA and IPENZ Engenerate plan to arrange networking events like this to facilitate networking of young public works and engineering professionals.

What is Young IPWEA?

Young IPWEA (or YIPWEA) is a new networking group of the Institute of Public Works Engineering Australasia. It has been formed to develop the next generation of leaders in our rapidly changing sector.

Hon Craig Foss –

Craig has been the MP for Tukituki since 2005. He is the current Minister for Small Business, Statistics, and Veteran's Affairs, and well as the Associate Minister for Transport and Immigration Engenerate (or IPENZ Emerging Professionals) is a professional group aimed at engineers with less than 8 years' professional work experience. Engenerate works to help young engineers develop their professional careers by holding technical presentations, site visits and social networking events.
